VOLUME CVIII--NO. 22.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 25, 1907.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

Eminent Doctors Praise its Ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John E. Fyfe, of the Editorial Staff of the ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW, says of Unicorn root (Helonias dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator... makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system. He continues: 'In Helonias we have a medicine which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent.'"

"The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain arising in the back, with leucorrhoea, and other (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases, amenorrhoea (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the female system. In all catarrhal conditions, and general debility, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no need of saying much. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. Bartholomew, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which it is recommended.

COMPETENT JUDGES.

Beauty Doctors Endorse Herpelide.

Women who make a business of beautifying other women come pretty near knowing what will bring about the best results. Here are letters from two, concerning Herpelide:

"I can recommend Newbro's 'Herpelide' as it stopped my hair from falling out, and, as a dressing it has no superior."

(Signed.) Bertha A. Trullinger, "Complexion Specialist," 205 Morrison St., Portland, Ore."

"After using one bottle of 'Herpelide' my hair has stopped falling out, and my scalp is entirely free from dandruff."

(Signed.) Grace Dodge, "Beauty Doctor," 136 Sixth St., Portland, Ore."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and give strength to them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To restore the kidneys alone is futile. It is a waste of time and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is cloudy, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative. It is a medicine that will reach the kidneys, and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

Suicide of a Student.

Within fifteen minutes after he had registered at the Grand Union Hotel in New York Wednesday afternoon, Lathrop Smith, a student in the law school at Columbia University, from Kansas City, committed suicide by shooting.

The student had not even taken off his overcoat before he fired the shot which crashed through his brain. No cause for the act can be learned. His fellow students are unable to account for it, and a message apparently written just before he fired the fatal shot, was:

"Mother and all loved ones, good by; mother, good-by." Lying face downward the body was found. In the right hand was a .32 caliber revolver, with only one shell in it. On the dresser was a box of cartridges. In Smith's pockets was a $35 draft from the New England Bank of Kansas City, Mo. Smith was a member of one of the most prominent families in Kansas City, and was a well known leader in exclusive social circles there.

War on Tobacco.

Every man and boy has sworn off tobacco, in every form, at Port Republic, a thriving hamlet on the mainland, near Atlantic City. The pipe of repentance was lighted by the visit of an eloquent Evangelist who declared: "Hell is full of chewers and smokers; cigarette smokers are chained in the hottest corners."

Women took up the crusade. While they sang joyous hymns, Miss Amanda Blake, proprietor of the village's general store, piled in the street her entire stock of tobacco, cigars, pipes and cigarettes, set fire to them and they went up in smoke. John H. Johnson, seventy years old, sexton of the church, who has "never been without a pipe for fifty-five years," swore off and is dangerously ill. But he is resisting temptation, saying proudly: "I would rather do without a whiff of tobacco than live for all eternity in an atmosphere of sulphur."

Killed Cousin and Himself.

Sarah Kling, aged 18, was shot and instantly killed yesterday by her cousin, Meyer Schwartz, aged 17, at his home in New York. Schwartz then shot and killed himself. It is believed the boy and girl entered into a pact to die together because their parents objected to their fondness for each other. When neighbors, attracted by the shots, entered the room they found Meyer lying dead on the floor with a bullet hole in his temple and a revolver clutched in his hand. The girl was sitting in a chair with her head back against the wall, and with a frightful wound in the mouth. On a table in the room were found three notes, all signed by the boy. One of them read as follows: "My father did not allow me to go to her. Her mother did not want her to go to me, and therefore, we both go together."

New York Daily Tribune.

If you want a publication that serves up so much more and so many thrills in every issue and does not care whether you read it or not, it is money thrown away to buy the Tribune. If, however, you are looking for a daily history of the world, carefully collated and sifted, you cannot make any mistake in reading the Tribune every day. The Daily Tribune contains special articles on nearly every subject which interests intelligent and clean minded people, to say nothing of the instructive editorial articles and reviews of books, music, art and the drama. Invest $1 and get the Daily and Sunday Tribune by mail for a month. With the Sunday Tribune goes a handsome Illustrated Supplement and a Magazine equal to anything sold for ten cents.

N. Y. Tribune Farmer.

The Tribune Farmer has no superior anywhere in this world as a publication for farmers and their families. Everything worth knowing about the theory or practice of farming is treated by men recognized as experts in their various lines. The Tribune Farmer keeps the farmer in touch with all the latest improvements by text and pictures. Besides this it has features to interest the women folk. The price is $1 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New York Tribune, New York.

N. Y. Tri-Weekly Tribune

The Tri-Weekly Tribune is issued on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of every week, and contains the essence of the Daily Tribune for the whole week. The Tri-Weekly Tribune gives much prominence to special articles, written by experts, on subjects of direct interest to dwellers outside the big cities. Price, $1.50 a year.
